

Kaiser Aluminum Corporation Announces Appointment of Leo W. Gerard to its Board of Directors

September 19, 2019

FOOTHILL RANCH, Calif., Sept. 19, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Kaiser Aluminum Corporation (NASDAQ:KALU) today announced that its board of directors increased the number of authorized members of its board of directors from 11 to 12 and appointed Leo W. Gerard to fill the vacancy on the Board resulting from the increase of authorized members of the Board. Mr. Gerard served as International President of the United Steel, Paper and Forestry, Rubber, Manufacturing, Energy, Allied Industrial and Service Workers International Union, AFL-CIO, CLC (formerly known as the United Steelworkers of America, AFL-CIO, CLC) (the "USW") from 2001 until his retirement in July 2019. During that time, Mr. Gerard was a co-founder of the BlueGreen Alliance, an alliance uniting America's largest labor unions with influential environmental organizations dedicated to expanding the number and quality of jobs in the clean energy economy.

"We are pleased to welcome Leo as a member of the board," said Jack A. Hockema, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman. "Leo brings several decades of knowledge and experience in the metals industry and will be a great asset to the Company as we pursue our strategic growth initiatives and continue to drive improvement in our manufacturing efficiencies. Kaiser Aluminum has a significant number of represented employees across our operations, and several USW nominated directors. We value the long-term relationship we have had with Leo, the USW and their contribution to the growth we've achieved and the opportunities yet ahead," concluded Mr. Hockema.
